The Village of Haverstraw is located at the widest point of the Hudson River 30 miles north of New York City. Here, fine architecture and a walkable street network positions the Village to stand apart from its suburban neighbors as an urban enclave on the Hudson River. This richly populated downtown boasts a rich history and offers a wide array of opportunities for your business to take advantage of an emerging, young and multi-ethnic demographic.

BRICKTOWN INN

This charming Victorian inn, which was built in the mid-1860's, is a brick mansard colonial home which belonged to a prominent Haverstraw family who owned one of the many brickyards, which was Haverstraw's main industry and why it was called "The Brickmaking Capitol."

“Haverstraw is a microcosm of metropolitan New York...

50 minutes to New York City

BY FERRY AND TRAIN

...We are a small town with great architecture, diverse culture and a burgeoning restaurant scene. We have neighborhoods where people actually care about one another and go out of their way to help. And we have unparalleled access and views of the Hudson River and High Tor Mountain. With New York City only being an hour away, we are big city savvy with a small town feel.”

– Mayor Michael Kohut
